

How our Music curriculum is constructed

Our 'progression' details how our pupils learn the National Curriculum content. Each objective in our progression document requires pupils to master key skills and techniques in order to understand the significance of the knowledge they have learned and can remember - some people call this 'disciplinary knowledge'.

'Overview' details what is taught and when.

The progression document and our skills and techniques are sequenced small building blocks to enable children to achieve our 'key objectives' (end points) we have decided as crucial to meeting the expected standard in each subject by the end of each academic year.

Our medium term planning identifies the 'sticky knowledge', what some people call 'substantive knowledge', and this is the body of knowledge we have selected as being of value for our children to know and remember. The sticky knowledge is sequenced and builds on relevant previous learning and supports future relevant learning.

In years 1&2 Charanga music scheme is used by teachers. In years 3-6 music is taught by the PPA teacher who is able to plan activities which link directly to the wider curriculum and to any performance opportunities such as Harvest, Christmas, sharing assemblies, singing festivals and carol concerts. This same teacher takes singing assembly so further reinforcement of music theory and history of music can take place as this assembly is attended by years 3-6 and direct links are made with what they have been learning in their class based music lessons.
