

The three fluffy Kittens and the big, big bad scary dog.

Once upon a time there was some kittens that builded a tree house. They had their treats for breakfast. They cut off a tree and built a house on top of the tree. It had rainbow leaves on the roof. They climbed up the gate and the kittens started to play with some ribbons.

Then came along a big, big, bad scary dog. He tried to spy on the kittens. He wanted to follow them. He had a water gun. He squirted the water gun at the kittens. The kittens jumped to the treehouse. The dog couldn't get them. The dog was grumpy and he runned away. The kittens lived happily ever after. The end.
