

APPLEDORE SCHOOL Inspire • Create • Achieve

PERSON SPECIFICATION

Experience Experience of teaching music within KS2 Essential Application (A), Interview (I)	Category	Requirements	Essential/	Method of
Experience of teaching music within KS1 Desirable A.I Experience of running a school choir Experience of working within a team, involving supporting staff and sharing practice. Experience of SEND Excellent knowledge of the primary curriculum and how to design and plan sequences of progressive learning Understanding of effective pedagogy across the subjects Effective use of assessment for learning Good understanding of how to deliver effective literacy and maths teaching, including phonics Understanding of effective and sequential music teaching, learning and curriculum Skills, Oualified Teacher Status A passion for music Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning omvironment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)			Desirable	Assessment
Experience of running a school choir Experience of working within a team, involving supporting staff and sharing practice. Experience of SEND Excellent knowledge of the primary curriculum and how to design and plan sequences of progressive learning Understanding of effective pedagogy across the subjects Effective use of assessment for learning Good understanding of how to deliver effective literacy and maths teaching, including phonics Understanding of effective and sequential music teaching, learning and curriculum Skills, Abilities and Attributes Apassion for music Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)	Experience	Experience of teaching music within KS2	Essential
Experience of working within a team, involving supporting staff and sharing practice. Experience of SEND Experience of SEND Excellent knowledge of the primary curriculum and how to design and plan sequences of progressive learning Understanding of effective pedagogy across the subjects Effective use of assessment for learning Good understanding of how to deliver effective literacy and maths teaching, including phonics Understanding of effective and sequential music teaching, learning and curriculum Understanding of effective and sequential music teaching, learning and curriculum All Essential A,I Skills, Abilities and Atributes Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)		Experience of teaching music within KS1	Desirable	A.I
Skills, Abilities and Attributes Apassion for music Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning Essential A,I Esse		Experience of running a school choir	Desirable	A.I
Excellent knowledge of the primary curriculum and how to design and plan sequences of progressive learning Understanding of effective pedagogy across the subjects Essential A,I			Essential	A,I
Excellent knowledge of the primary curriculum and how to design and plan sequences of progressive learning Understanding of effective pedagogy across the subjects Essential A,I		Experience of SEND	Essential	A.I
Effective use of assessment for learning Good understanding of how to deliver effective literacy and maths teaching, including phonics Understanding of effective and sequential music teaching, learning and curriculum Qualified Teacher Status Abilities and Attributes Apassion for music Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)	Knowledge	Excellent knowledge of the primary curriculum and how to design and
Good understanding of how to deliver effective literacy and maths teaching, including phonics Understanding of effective and sequential music teaching, learning and curriculum Skills, Abilities and Attributes A passion for music Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)		Understanding of effective pedagogy across the subjects	Essential	A,I teaching, including phonics Understanding of effective and sequential music teaching, learning and curriculum Skills, Abilities and Attributes A passion for music Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)		Effective use of assessment for learning	Essential	A,I
Skills, Abilities and Attributes A passion for music A passion for music Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)			Essential	A,I
Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)			Essential	A,I
Attributes A passion for music Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)		Qualified Teacher Status	Essential	A.I
Ability to plan for learning in collaboration with colleagues and cross curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)		A passion for music	Essential	A,I curricula High levels of personal organisation Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)		Ability to work within a team sharing ideas, expertise and skills	Essential	A,I
Ability to differentiate activities for a wide spectrum of learners and offer excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Essential A,I Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)			Essential	A,I excellent teaching and learning opportunities Ability to relate well to children and adults, including other professionals and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Essential A,I Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)		High levels of personal organisation	Essential	A,I
and carers High expectations of children, of self and of others Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents) Essential A,I			Essential	A,I
Effective use of ICT, for personal use and within the learning environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents) Essential A,I			Essential	A.I
environment Willingness to contribute to wider outcomes and the ethos of the school, including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents) Essential A,I		High expectations of children, of self and of others	Essential	A,I
including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music learning with the whole school and parents)			Essential	A,I
A sense of humour ESSENTIAL A !		including organising external music opportunities for pupils (eg church festivals and services, choir performances and regular sharing of music	Essential	A,I
		A sense of humour	ESSENTIAL !	А